

THE WARNIE EFFECT: NAVIGATING CORONARY DISEASE AND PRIMARY PREVENTION IN 2022 AND BEYOND

Date & time (NEW): Wednesday, 16th November 2022, 6.00pm – 9.00pm

Venue: Barwon Edge Boat House, 40 Windsor Road, Newtown VIC 3220

Dinner and drinks provided

Speakers/ topics:

Diagnostic testing: Who / What / Where / How / Why

Presented by Dr Ryan Spencer, Cardiologist

- Getting the correct test for each presentation (chest pain / Dyspnoea / palpitation / syncope)
- Testing for symptomatic and silent ischaemia - Why and how -including ISCHAEMIA
- MBS restrictions and requirements

Treatment and Primary prevention of coronary disease

Presented by Dr Vishesh Turaga, Cardiologist

- Calcium score and CTCA
- What to do next with abnormal results
- Evidence in primary prevention
- Treatment of established coronary disease (pivotal role of medical therapy)
- GPs role in starting/maintaining therapy

Dr Matt Morey, Cardiology Radiologist from Epworth Medical Imaging will discuss:

- CT calcium scores and CT coronary angiography
- This event is sponsored by Epworth Medical Imaging

Learning outcomes

1. Recognise the relevant diagnostic testing appropriate for different patients and conditions
2. Recognise the GPs role in treatment and primary prevention of coronary disease

Registration:

Register here or visit <https://www.epworth.org.au/for-gps>

As this is a catered event, we ask that you carefully consider your availability*

- First name and surname
- Email address
- RACGP or ACRRM number
- General Practice name
- General Practice suburb and postcode

Enquiries contact gpliaison@epworth.org.au

